

Genesee Valley Produce Auction Summer 2017

[print_link]

One of our favorite things to do is to visit the Genesee Valley Produce Auction. We visited the auction for the second time in 2017, just before the Fourth of July weekend. The auction is getting into full swing for the summer with a full parking lot of buyers and a variety of produce items for sale. Be sure to take note of the changes of auction days and hours described below, for Summer 2017.

Flowers for sale!

New Hours Summer
2017

The biggest change we noticed is an increase in the number of days the auction will be open this summer. I am sure this reflects the increase in the number of both buyers and producers in the local geography. There was a sign posted announcing the new days and hours. Wether buyer or seller, be sure to enjoy the auction!!

Notice!!

Starting July 24th – October 3rd, we plan to have 3 Auctions a week.

Monday at 5:00 PM

Wednesday at 10:00 AM

Friday at 10:00 AM

After October 3rd, the Auction will go back to Tuesday at 10:00 AM and Friday at 10:00 AM.

Thank You

Some of the items for sale this past week included, eggs, beets, flowers, local strawberries, black raspberries, cucumbers, peppers, rhubarb, kale, cauliflower, carrots and onions.

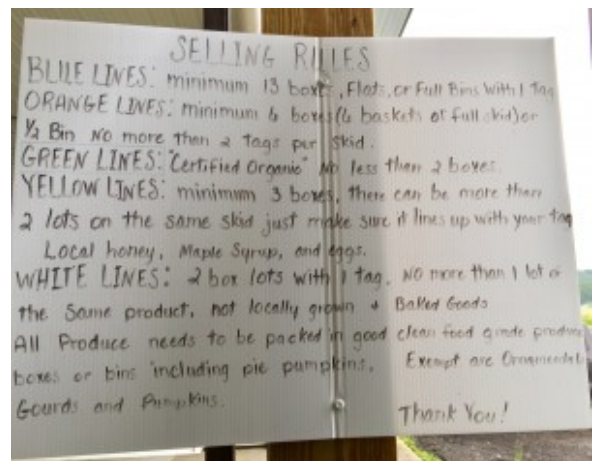

Eggs for Sale!

Beets for Sale!

For sellers, we took a photo of the “Selling Rules”. Not being a seller, we aren’t certain of the meaning of all the selling rules, but we are certain you can ask questions at the auction for clarity.

Selling Rules